

IHSLG Journal Co-operative

EAHIL WORKSHOP

4TH June 2009

Foundation of IHLILC

Irish Healthcare Libraries Inter-Lending Co-operative (IHLILC) was established in 1991 with 11 libraries, ranging from small, one-person operated libraries to large libraries.

Growth in Membership

- 1991

11 Libraries

- 2009

72 Libraries

Document Requests

- Requests for documents were made by fax or phone
- No charge for documents supplied
- Reciprocal scheme – each library would both supply and receive

Compared to Other Suppliers

- Documents supplied within the country
- Fast response rate and at a lower cost
- Goodwill of library personnel was essential for the working and development of the scheme

Growth of the scheme

• YEAR	MEMBERS	JOURNALS	TITLES
• 1991-1992	11	1,009
• 1993	19	1,562
• 1997	42	2,500
• 2000	59	3,000
• 2004	69	7,424	3,042
• 2008	70	7,412	4,176

(titles online journals not just member holdings)

Rules for Entry

- The library must hold a minimum of 20 health related journals
- The library must employ a full-time librarian
- The librarian must be willing to spend some time on supplying journals to libraries in the scheme
- The librarian must be prepared to keep on-line statistics of articles sent to and received from other libraries

Journal Holdings

- Number of journal holdings for each library varies
- Larger medical and nursing libraries have more journals
- Smaller libraries often have a specialized collection
- Together this adds up to a wide range of specialised journals that many libraries could not afford within the restrictions of their periodicals budget.

Journal Co-Operative Sub-Committee

- To regulate the scheme.
- Provide a forum to deal with complaints about the operation of the scheme.
- Formalised the rules for entry into the scheme and for remaining in it.
- Approve members/libraries joining the scheme
